I.

Officers from Massachusetts in United States Navy, 1861 to 1865.

By CAPTAIN CHARLES W. WILSON.

NOTE.

The following list of naval officers, with their records, has been in course of gradual preparation for many years, under a resolve of the Massachusetts Legislature, approved March 31, 1875, providing for "a full list, as nearly as may be practicable, of the officers, sailors and marines of Massachusetts who served in the navy during the late civil war, on the quota of Massachusetts, designating the name, age, rank and residence of each at the time of appointment or enlistment, with date of discharge or resignation and the reason therefor; the vessels and squadrons to which attached; also, the name of town or city, if any, upon whose quota said officers or seamen were credited." Resolves of 1875, c. 15.

This was modified five years later by a resolve, approved Feb. 18, 1880, providing for the inclusion in this report of "the names and record of all persons who served in any capacity in the United States navy, in the late civil war, who had their residence in Massachusetts at the time of said service." Resolves of 1880, c. 8.

The original intention, as stated in the resolve, was to have this report published in a volume by itself, uniform with the "Record of Massachusetts Volunteers." The work of preparation proved, however, to be very much more laborious and difficult than was expected. Since 1885 it has been entirely in charge of Captain Charles W. Wilson, of the Adjutant-General's Department, who has bestowed upon it an immense amount of labor, and whose thoroughness and accuracy are recognized by all who have come in contact with him. Even he has not yet been able to bring the list of sailors into condition for publication, and as this is the case, he has consented to publish the list of officers, as a partial report in connection with this work, an arrangement which is eminently satisfactory to all concerned.

List and Military History of Massachusetts General Officers.

NOTE. This list of general officers, by brevet or otherwise, includes (1) those born in Massachusetts (2) those appointed from Massachusetts into the regular army (3) those serving previously in Massachusetts volunteer regiments. In many cases the brevets were conferred at the very close or even after the close of the civil war, but they were, in all cases here included, based in part at least on services during the war itself. Details in regard to these brevets will be found in a separate table.

Abbot, Henry Larcom. Born at Beverly, Mass., Aug. 13, 1831. Cadet, U. S. Military Academy, July 1, 1850, to July 1, 1854. Brevet Second Lieutenant, Topographical Engineers, July 1, 1854. Second Lieutenant, Oct. 2, 1855. First Lieutenant, July 1, 1857. Assistant Topographical Engineer on the staff of Brig. General McDowell, July 5-15, 1861. Chief Topographical Engineer of General Tyler's division in the Manassas campaign of July, 1861. Engaged in the action of Blackburn's Ford, July 18, 1861, and battle of Bull Run, July 21, 1861, where he was wounded. Brevet Captain, July 21, 1861. Assistant Topographical Engineer in the defences of Washington, on the staff of General McDowell, July 23 to Aug. 21, 1861. TABLE OF HIGHEST GRADES ATTAINED BY MASSACHUSETTS GENERAL OFFICERS (1861–5).

U. S. Army.

Brevet Maj. Generals,	7
Brevet Brig. Generals,	25

U. S. Volunteers.

Maj. Generals,	7
Brevet Maj. Generals,	24
Brig. Generals,	17
Brevet Brig. Generals,	120
Total Massachusetts general officers,	200

One Brevet Maj. General, U. S. Army, was also a Maj. General, U. S. Volunteers; two Brevet Brig. Generals, U. S. Army, were also Maj. Generals, U. S. Volunteers; and three were also Brevet Maj. Generals, U. S. Volunteers. These are, however, included in the above table under their regular army grades alone.

The number of those who were commissioned or brevetted as general officers while in actual service is much smaller than the total here given. Nine of those here enumerated were formally brevetted or promoted after death in battle or from wounds; and thirty-four after they had been mustered out of the service.

It is to be noted that the fullest list previously given of Massachusetts general officers — that of Bowen, in 1889 — includes but 122.
